What's On

August 2017

August's Guest Speaker: Phil Hallam Climbing the Totem Pole Photos

Phil Hallam recently met a group of German rock climbers who were planning to climb the Totem Pole, a huge pointy rock structure in a bay at Cape Huay in the Tasman Peninsula.

Phil accompanied the climbers and spent several hours tethered to a cliff face, photographing the climbers. Phil will present his own images plus fabulous images from the members of the club. It will make an excellent presentation.

August club meeting: Tuesday 8th August, Lions Club, Merino Street, Kings Meadows at 7.30pm.

Club Monthly Competitions

The club committee has revamped the monthly competition program to increase the number of entries by members. The program will be described in a separate document. Essentially, for most months there will be competitions for Projected Digital Images (PDI's) for both colour and monochrome. Members will be able to enter two images for colour PDI's and two images for monochrome PDI's. The subject for these monthly competitions is Open (unrestricted). Refer to the program document for details.

Entries for the September club competition are due on Tuesday 8th August. Entries can be lodged at the club meeting by bringing the images on a jump drive. Or by Emailing to p.routley@bigpond.com.

Naming Email entries. Use the following naming system for Projected Digital Images entered.

First name initial, surname, C (colour) or M (monochrome), 1 or 2 (first or second image), underscore, name of image

E.g. csmithC1_bluebell or csmithM2_spring

President Steve is on a photographic tour of the South Island of New Zealand. The itinerary was changed from the West Coast to the East Coast to avoid the major flooding affecting New Zealand. No escaping the floods.

The three basic rules for looking after your camera

1. Don't drop your camera

2. Water, sand and cameras don't mix

3. Don't lend your camera to anyone
