Soggy Bottom Cardboard Box Boat Regatta At the Gorge Pool Sunday 25th February

Action photography was the go at this year's Soggy Bottom Cardboard Box Boat Regatta as crews paddled the length of the pool at the Gorge. "Paddled" was a euphemism as some craft capsized at the start or during a race, while others sank.

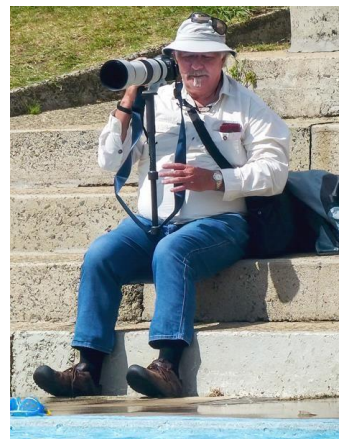

Jack Barker, Alan Murray, Julie Rodman, Kelvin Jowett, Fiona Carter and Erik, and Rod Oliver captured the action in the pool. Here are some great action shots.

March Guest Speaker Craig George

Guest speaker at the March meeting, Craig George.

Craig had a 30 year career with Victoria Police, specialising in covert technical surveillance e.g. extra-long distance photography and low light or no light photography.

He moved to Tasmania in October 2017 and is currently an editorial photographer with the Examiner. Craig projected a number of his Examiner photographs.

Craig impressed the audience with his aerial photography skills and experience, shooting from helicopters, fixed wing aircraft and using drones. His overhead shots were stunning.

Craig held the attention of the audience throughout a fascinating talk. Thank you, Craig, for a memorable presentation.
